Howard Monk is the founder and managing director of The Local, London's highly respected live music promotion and booking agency.

The Local has worked with artists from all over the world and has a growing impressive booking agency roster.

Howard has helped a number of artists make their first steps to playing across the water, in both directions.

Howard is a board member of Unconvention, a global grass roots new music industry conversation, encouraging musicians and music industry folks of all levels to communicate more freely, and take on a lot of the new fun work themselves.

Howard also has a small roster of management clients which is developing nicely, thank you very much.
