

KAREN BLISS – Freelance Music Journalist,
Billboard/MSN/AOL/RollingStone.com - Co-Founder, Daycare
Records (CAN)

Toronto-based Karen Bliss is an established music journalist whose work has appeared in print and online for Billboard, Rolling Stone, MSN, AOL, Elle Canada, Hits, Pollstar, The Toronto Star, Lowdown on Jam.Canoe.ca, and dozens more. Along the way, she has interviewed Kurt Cobain, Shania Twain, Eddie Vedder, Eminem, Alanis Morissette, Jimmy Page, Avril Lavigne, Lenny Kravitz, Britney Spears, and thousands more. In addition to all her other outlets, she is the Canadian correspondent for Billboard. She is also editor in chief/owner of the online magazine Samaritanmag.com about individuals, charities and businesses making a difference. Karen is also the creator/writer of an animated, anti-racism PSA, The Girl With Pinhead Parents (seen on YouTube) that is voiced by Nelly Furtado, Chris Bosh, July Black, Hedley's Jacob Hoggard, Skye Sweetnam and LIGHTS. Recently, she launched a record label with producer/musician Luther Mallory called Daycare Records.