

KIM BEGGS – Singer/Songwriter (CAN)

Kim Beggs is an independent artist who has reached relatively high acclaim in the short time since she first of three full-length albums less than seven years ago. She has worked with two different labels, worked with many publicists, and toured nationally and internationally (Canada, the US and the UK). She is self managed and has done much her own bookings, though she get's a little help from time to time. She does a lot of music biz and creative mentoring here in Whitehorse as well as nationally. She has toured on her own, with a band, with Mick Jagger's brother Chris, as well as lots of other fantastic artists. She is a journeyman carpenter, self taught guitar player and singer, writes her own award winning songs, writes for the local entertainment magazine, has started her own TV talk show and teaches songwriting workshops for all ages. She is extremely creative and an excellent trouble-shooter for ideas and problem solving. And she makes her own music videos one of which was nominated for a WCMA this year. Her second and latest album Blue Bones were both nominated as well (2011, 2007).
